2025 WPN EDUCATIONAL TRUST – BURSARY OPPORTUNITIES

The Women's Property Network registration of interest for 2025 bursaries has opened. Only applications from female South African students studying towards a full time built environment / property related degree or diploma and in second and onward year of study in 2025 will be considered.

Preference is given to undergrad students. However, applications for honours and masters year of study will be considered and awarded at the discretion of the Trustees.

We are looking for students that have performed well – an aggregate of at least 65% and over, and in exceptional circumstances where performance and need can be demonstrated, consideration will be given to awarding a full bursary i.e. tuition fees and accommodation (university residence only - no private accommodation). Otherwise, bursary awards are for tuition fees only.

Students can register their interest via: WPN Bursary - Registration of Interest

What a bursary award has meant...

I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for the financial support that the Women's Property Network has provided me over the past years.

Your generous assistance has not only eased the financial burden of my studies but also enabled me to grow both academically and professionally.

I am proud to share that I am now registered as a candidate valuer with the South African Council for the Property Valuers Profession (SACPVP), a significant milestone in my career development.
